Dear Sir/Madam,

I will keep this brief as you have no doubt had many e-mails that already make many of the points I would have normally put forward. However, there is one issue that I would like for you to take into consideration and that is the impact on computing globally if this mockery of a settlement is allowed to proceed. Microsoft has an even greater stanglehold on the majority of non-US computing markets than the one it has in the US. If this settlement, which is so pathetically feeble it beggars belief, is followed through, it will effectively enable MS to dominate the world even more than it does now. So, please take this into consideration when deliberating on your decision - it affects many, many more people than just the US population.

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan Tyzack
